

WACO.

Rabbi Wolfe Macht spoke to the Menorah Society of State University on Sunday, Jan. 11th. His subject was "Culture and Kultur". On the evening he was invited to speak at a B'nai B'rith meeting.

Mrs. L. Fred returned from Fort Worth last week where she was the guest of her children, Mrs. A. Simon and Mrs. M. A. Fred.

Mr. M. B. Berkman has returned from a month's visit to Pittsburg and New York.

Mr. Alexander Lurge of Superior, Wisconsin, is visiting his friends here. Mr. Lurge was stationed at Camp McArthur with the 32nd Division.

Lovely Dinner for Wedding Party.

Mrs. H. Novich entertained the Block-Novich wedding party with a lovely eight-hour course dinner at which covers for twenty-two guests were noted. Attractive hand-painted place cards depicting brides and a pretty romance marked the places. The table held a handsome crystal basket of pink carnations.

The elegantly appointed table was lighted with crystal candlesticks of colonial design, from which crystal pendants were suspended.

Pink almond baskets and a pink maline were further details of a pretty table.

Good cheer and many happy felicitations for the happy couple were the order of the evening in the hospitable home.

Those present were: Mesdames Leopold Block and Ralph Frapart of Galveston; Samuel S. Rosenstein of Dallas; J. W. Hillen, Gertrude Burbank, and H. Novich; Misses Gertrude Novich, Rosalie Lazarus, Jennie Novich, Gertie Block, of Galveston, Mary and Rae Novich, Dr. Macht, Judge W. E. Spell, Messrs. Hyman S. Block, Herbert Frapart, Henry Block, all of Galveston; Henry L. Block of St. Louis; George Novich of San Antonio, Louis Lazarus, Jules Tobian, Lape Lazarus.

A Hippodrome Box Party.

Miss Rosalie Lazarus entertained with a Hippodrome party in honor of Mrs. Jennie Novich, a bride of the week. This enjoyable affair was followed by a luncheon at the Raleigh and there were noted about the table Misses Ida Adelman, Sadie and Bertha Berkman, Ida Rosenberg, Mary Levy, Ruth Levinski, Jennie Novich, Gertie Block of Galveston. Mesdames Maurice Eisenberg and Samuel Rosenstein of Dallas, and the hostess.

Honoree in Fort Worth.

Miss Leah Friedman who has been the New Year's guest of Miss Gertie Jacobs in Fort Worth, was honoree at a luncheon-dansante given by the latter in the Metropolitan ball room, and she was also honoree at a watch party at the same hotel. She is delighted with her visit in Fort Worth.

Block-Novich.

Culminating in a beautiful home ceremony in the spacious home of Mrs. H. Novich, on North Sixteenth street, the romance which began several years ago when Miss Jennie Novich met Hyman Samuel Block, a prominent young Galvestonian, took from this city one of her loveliest young women, one whose many friends can truly testify as to her genuine sincerity and beauty of character.

For this event which assembled a number of out-of-town guests and those nearest in friendship from among Waco friends, the Novich home—one of the handsomest in the city from the standpoint of appointment, was lavishly decorated in ferns, palms and southern smilax.

The guests were welcomed by Mesdames Maurice Eisenberg, Samuel S. Rosenstein of Dallas, Gertrude Burbank and Miss Mary Novich.

In the formal line were Mrs. Leopold Block, Mr. and Mrs. Frapart, Herbert Frapart, Miss Gertie Block, all of Galveston; Mrs. H. Novich. Lape Lazarus, George Novich of San Antonio, Henry R. Block of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lazarus, Misses Rae Novich and Rosalie Lazarus.

After the wedding the bride and groom were formally presented in the above named line.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Ralph Frapart of Galveston sang "A Dream," by Bartlett. She has a wonderfully beautiful voice.

Mrs. J. W. Hillan charmingly rendered "O Promise Me." She is a recent acquisition to our city.

The wedding march was played by Miss Gertrude Novich.

Rabbi Macht was the celebrant.

The bride chose as her only attendant her sister, Miss Mary Novich, who wore a handsome gown of pink brocaded satin with elegant gold trimmings and carried a cluster of Killarney roses.

The best man was Henry L. Block of St. Louis.

The bride entered with her brother, George Novich of San Antonio.

The wedding tableaux was formed beneath a white and gold canopy, amid a bower of stately palms.

The lovely bride was gowned in white satin trimmed in real lace. Her tulle train ended in a handsome pearl ornament. Her veil, which fell from a cap of tulle circled with orange blossoms, extended the full length of her train. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and Ophelia roses.

The impressive ceremony was witnessed by a large circle of friends.

Following the congratulations which were extended on all sides, the guests were assembled in the dining room which patronized pink and white in its decoration.

All about the room were Colonial crystal candlesticks with glowing candles, and the table covered with a lovely Cluny cloth, held four crystal candlesticks with rose satin bows.

A three-tier wedding cake was the much admired central decoration. It was circled with Cupids, each one holding a musical instrument and topped with a tiny bride and groom under a beautiful wedding bell.

Misses Gertrude Novich, Bertha Berkman, Jack Rosein, Ida Adelman, Ruth Levinski, Mary, Ida Rosenberg, and Rosalie Lazarus offered the dainty refreshments of punch and cake.

For the wedding party pink maline bags of wedding cake tied with clusters of orange blossoms and lilies of the valley were souvenirs of the occasion.

A chest of silver, a silver tea service, a beautiful Minton china, a collection of glassware and many beautiful furnishings for the home were noted among the handsome gifts sent the bride and groom.

Mrs. H. Novich wore a handsome lavender and black gown trimmed in lace.

Miss Rae Novich wore a lovely coral satin reception gown.

For traveling, the bride wore a navy blue suit with feather hat to match. Her blouse came from New York and was of the charming batik, now so much in vogue.

A corsage of sweet peas and sweet-heart buds completed the most becoming costume.

The honeymoon is to be spent in New Orleans, and then they will return to Galveston where the groom is prominent in the H. Kempner Cotton Company, one of the largest cotton companies in the United States, and they will be greeted by his host of friends.

To her new home the bride will carry the best wishes of her many Waco friends, and a happy future is predicted for them.

The out of town guests were: Mrs. Leopold Block, mother of the groom; Miss Gertie Block, sister of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Frapart and sons, Herbert and Edmond; Aaron Samuels and Henry Block, all of Galveston; Miss Jack Rosien, Miss Samuel Rosenstein of Dallas; Henry L. Block of St. Louis; George Novich of San Antonio.
